Numb. 4958

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 26. to Tuesday January 29. 1711.

At the Court at St. James's, January 28. 1711.

PRESENT,

The Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

THIS Day the following Sheriffs were appointed by Her Majeſty, viz.

Cornwall, John Cole, Eſq;
Rutland, William Roberts of Glaiſton, Eſq;

Lisbon, December 18. N. S. An Advice-Boat arriv'd here on the Sixteenth Inſtant, in Fifty Days from Bahia, which is the Bay of Todos les Santos, upon the Coaſt of Brazil, and brings an Account, how the French under the Command of Monſieur Du Guey Trouin by the favour of a Fog, entered the Port of Rio de Janairo, on the Twelfth of September laſt with Sixteen Men of War. The Portugueſe Admiral made what Reſiſtance he could, but fearing leſt four Men of War, and ſome Merchantmen, ſhould fall into the Hands of the Enemy, thought fitting to ſet Fire to them, and retire into the Town of St. Sebaſtian, which was defended by the Governour till the Twenty-firſt of the ſame Month, in which time the Inhabitants took the Opportunity of retiring up into the Country, with the richeſt of their Effects. It is thought here, that the French will not be able to continue in this Place for want of Proviſions. Since the arrival of this News at Lisbon frequent Conferences have been held between the Miniſters of the King of Portugal, and the Miniſters of the Allies, and particularly of thoſe of the Queen of Great Britain and the States-General.

Venice, Jan. 19. N. S. We have receiv'd Letters that Monſieur Raſponi, who had carried the Red Hat to the Cardinal Albani, was return'd from Urbino, with Don Charles and Alexander Albani, the Brothers of that Prelate. The Pope went Yeſterday to viſit Don Horatio Albani his Brother, who is at preſent Indiſpoſed; and this Morning has ſent ſeveral Perſons of Quality to attend the new Cardinal, who is to make his Publick Entrance into that City within a Day or two. The Duke de Zagarola, the Cardinal Palavicini, and the Prince Borgheſe, have made him very large Preſents towards furniſhing out his Equipage.

Berlin, Jan. 16. N. S. The Counteſs Coſell paſs'd by this Town in order to return for Dreſden. The Queen is expected here to day from Grabow, and the Prince of Anhalt Deſſaw will attend her, to be preſent upon the Coronation-day, that will be celebrated with the utmoſt Magnificence. Major-General Span, who is to be inſtall'd as Knight of the Pruſſian Order, arriv'd here ſome Days ago, and the Prince of Naſſau Dillenburg has ſent one of his Gentlemen to repreſent his Perſon on that Ceremony.

Hanover, January 19. N. S. The Advices from Conſtantinople of the Firſt of December import, that the Grand Vizir having continued at the Head of the Army for ſome time, when it was expected that he ſhould have attended the Sultan, to have given an Account of his Proceedings, his Enemies had taken an Opportunity to repreſent to the Grand Signior, that he was wanting in his Duty, and that Affairs had not been Tranſacted with ſuch Sincerity between him and the Muſcovites, as became the Great Truſt which was repoſed in him. The Cham of the Tartars, the Mufti, and the Aga of the Janizaries, went ſo far as to accuſe him of ill Practices, but they proceeded no farther, than to have him depoſed, and his Goods Confiſcated, but not to touch the Life, either of him or any of his Creatures, which in that Empire has always been uſual upon the like Occaſions. Theſe Letters add, that the Aga of the Janizaries had been advanc'd to the Dignity of Grand Vizir, and had made his Entrance into Conſtantinople. The Sultan having ſent for Kuperli, the Baſſa of Syria, to come to Court, there is Occaſion given to think he will ſucceed in that Employment, which has been in his Family for ſome Generations. As this Kuperli is extremely inclin'd to War, Perſons give themſelves the liberty of reporting here, that the Port will renew the War, altho' Aſoph, and the other Places mention'd in the Treaty, ſhould be ſurrender'd. But Advices from thoſe Parts varying ſo extremely much, there can be nothing entirely depended on without farther Confirmation.

Amſterdam, January 29. N. S. They write from Paris of the Twenty ſecond Inſtant, that they had Advice from Cadiz of the Twenty ſecond of December, that Monſieur du Guey Trouin, and Monſieur du Caſſe, went together from Martinico, to return to France, richly laden; but as neither Place or Time of their Departure are mention'd, we muſt expect a farther Confirmation.

Yarmouth, January 25. Yeſterday paſſed through our Road ſeveral laden Colliers, and Ships from Norway, to the Southward. There came alſo Yeſterday, from the Southward, a Fleet of Coaſters and light Colliers, with their Convoys, who are now here, bound to the Northward.

Plymouth, January 25. The Twenty-third came in from Falmouth, the St. Auguſtin, of and from Bilboa with Iron and Wool for London. Laſt Night came in Her Majeſty's Ship Breda from Falmouth, and under her Convoy about Sixteen Tin and homeward bound Merchant Ships, and three Veſſels with Coals for this Place.

Cowes, January 26. On Thurſday laſt came into this Road, from Torbay, and Sail'd Yeſterday from Portſmouth, her Majeſty's Ships the Seaford, Lyme, and Delight, and with them five Packers for London, with three Coaſters, which went up directly for Spithead, whence, its ſaid, they'll Sail this Day, with others under Convoy, for the Downs.

Falmouth,